

Right to training AND EDUCATION

Did you know...?

■ Violence, abuse, exploitation, trafficking, illegal arrests and detentions, kidnappings or recruitment by armed groups, early marriage, sexual or gender violence affect thousands of minors in Mali, South Sudan, Congo, and Haiti.

■ In the Horn of Africa and the Sahel, extreme poverty and the risk of famine affect millions of children and their families and force them to leave their homes in search of food and water.

Caritas acts by contributing to the protection and promotion of minors by means of:

1 The reception, accompaniment and reintegration of minors in homeless situations.

2 Coverage of your basic needs.

3 Start-up of 1st and 2nd reception centers.

4 Sufficient professional training of adequate quality in carpentry and upholstery; cutting, sewing and embroidery and photovoltaic electricity.

ONGOING PROJECTS for 2,900 people and another 12,000 people from other food security projects.

2 projects to ensure rights, including vocational training for street children and highly vulnerable children in Mali and Morocco. In addition to transversal actions in other food security projects in Mali, Senegal, South Sudan, Congo, and Haiti.
